Loving & Caring Decisions With Felicia

Hello again, I pray that everyone had a great week! I am going to get right into it today, and talk about Prearrangement and Preplanning. They are slightly different but carry the same common denominator, they are all about planning ahead.

I touched on this topic a few articles ago, but feel that it is definitely worth it to speak on it again.

Advantage Funeral & Cremation Services-Franklin-Strickland Chapel highly recommend planning ahead of time. A Prearrangement consists of planning your funeral services ahead and paying monthly on the balance. We have several plans to choose from to fit your budget.

Preplanning is simply planning your funeral services ahead of time; however it's just planning, no monthly payments are needed. You just come in and make all of your selections and preferences known, it will all be placed on file to present to your loved ones when that time comes.

A simple gesture of love will make it so much easier for your loved ones left behind. Imagine this, they will not have to worry about choosing a casket or an urn, they will not have to worry about choosing your clothes or your makeup preference or your choice of music to be played, and the list goes on. You would have already made all those decisions in planning ahead.

Here at Advantage Funeral & Cremation Services-Franklin-Strickland Chapel, our qualified staff will be with you every step of the way in your planning process. We will answer all of your questions and concerns and help you to secure this gift for your loved ones.

I constantly hear from individuals that they are not thinking about that right now, or that they are too young to plan their funeral services. None of us knows when that time will come, so shouldn't we all be prepared? Think of your loved ones and the pain and grief that they will endure, wouldn't you want to plan ahead to save them additional stress? Whether it is financial stress or just knowing exactly what you want done, it will greatly help them during the funeral arrangement process.

Please feel free to call or email us with any additional questions or concerns. Have a great week everyone!

As always I look forward to hearing from all of you; keep the questions coming!

Please remember to 'share' and 'like' our Facebook page.
